BACK IN PRINT

Welcome to the first print edition of the Pinkie since March 24th. During the time we were producing the Pinkie by pdf only, the email subscription list grew to almost 700 people.

As of this week we are printing both the 'cyberPinkie' and the print edition which will bring the number of copies we distribute each week to over 900.

As we stated last week, it will be touch-and-go as to whether the Pinkie can survive as our number of advertisers has substantially reduced. We realise that a number of businesses in Hanmer will be struggling to recover from the complete lack of custom during lockdown, but we hope our advertising will grow exponentially as business picks up again. Also stated last week was the fact that we are not far away from the point where the Pinkie breaks even, and that we are prepared to work on a break-even basis as a public service for at least another couple of months.

We did attempt to get a grant from the Government and we did get a response to our application, but to be honest, we ended up more confused than we started. The public servant that we spoke to was not a native English speaker and we had a great deal of trouble understanding anything more than the fact there was no money available for businesses like this but we should keep on trying. So we will keep on trying. Also there is the possibility of obtaining a wages subsidy for a further twelve weeks. If we can obtain that it will be a decent step toward the future.

Thank you to those subscribers who wrote and rang us re how we should handle the situation. Several suggested we should go back to charging $2 but the situation there is that the circulation has multiplied by about 750% since we went free. And the difference between this and other free papers is that everyone who receives the Pinkie has requested it, it's not just dumped in your mail box whether you want it or not like other papers. So we considered that idea impracticable.

And we had an even number of communications both telling us to ditch the printed edition and stay digital and alternatively to never consider the idea of the abandoning the printed edition.

What did happen in response to our article last week was that several of our business card advertisers immediately signed up to continue at our reduced rate and this was a great help.

And one thing we must say, and that is a very big thanks to those advertisers who have stuck with us, your business is greatly appreciated by everyone. And as a footnote we would say to potential advertisers is that if on average each copy is read by 2.5 people (the norm) then an ad placed under our reduced rates is getting seen by over 2000 people. Pretty good value!

(revised ad rates are on page 17)

Hanmer Holiday Homes Alpine Marathon on Schedule for December 2020

The Hanmer Holiday Homes Alpine Marathon is back for 2020. The event will be taking place on December 5th with the full marathon starting at Lake Tennyson. The accompanying half marathon and 10 kilometre runs will also take place.

Other 2020 Events

Covid 19 arrived in New Zealand just as the Hanmer Events season was about to warm up. This of course meant no 4 & 8 Hour Mountain Bike, no 4 Square Half Marathon with its 10K Fun Run and other events and no Mt Isobel Challenge.

In the process of trying to revive and correct our usual Events Calendar page we have heard from Hanmer Events about future dates for these events

Hanmer Events have advised us that they had been waiting to see how the situation would evolve and have made the decision to move these events into next year back on their original dates. We want to make sure we can provide the best race day experience and not clash with other events.

The 4&8 Hr MTB

will now take place on the 20 March 2021. They had originally planned to postpone this to a later 2020 date.

Hanmer 4 Square Half Marathon will take place on the 1st of May 2021.

Mt Isobel Challenge

will take place on the 22nd of May 2021.

Hanmer Events have advised that all existing registrations have been automatically rolled over to the 2021 dates

COVID SWABS

If you have spoken to Healthline and they have recommended that you get a Covid Swab, you do not need to travel to a testing centre, we can do it at the Health Centre. Just give us a ring, let us know that you've been assessed, and we will make an appointment. Swabs are usually done inside your vehicle and the clinician will wear PPE gear.

Our after-hours phone is always answered by a registered nurse who will assess your needs, offer advice or, if required, arrange immediate assistance from our on-call clinician. It can take several minutes to answer the phone so please be patient and hold, and follow the voice prompts carefully

IN AN EMERGENCY DIAL 111

We will not go back to normal. Normal never was. Our pre-corona existence was not normal other than we normalized greed, inequity, exhaustion, depletion, extraction, disconnection, confusion, rage, hoarding, hate and lack. We should not long to return, my friends. We are being given the opportunity to stitch a new garment. One that fits all of humanity and nature.

Can You Help Hanmer Springs School?

As part of our Outdoor Education Programme the Year 5 and 6 class will be travelling to the Boyle River Camp in Term 3, and in Term 4 the Year 7 and 8 will also travel there to complete a very different programme. The Year 7 and 8s were meant to be travelling to Wellington for a week's experience in our country's capital however, due to its significant cost and being so far away from home in these uncertain times it had to be cancelled.

As the school Principal I am concerned that the approximate $300 cost for these camps will be a significant challenge for some of our families at this time. I believe outdoor education provides a unique opportunity to further enrich a child in so many ways. For example;

- Develop their leadership skills.
- Build self-confidence and self esteem.
- Take a child outside their comfort zone in a controlled environment.
- Enhance team building ability.
- Reinforce the importance of caring for our environment.
- Allow other children to shine who have a real strength in this area.
- To have FUN!

These are obviously challenging times as we steer our way through the many inevitable obstacles but I am conscious of how beneficial the camps will be for the children. I thought I would ask our community whether there was anyone who could help a small group of our children attend camp this year.

If you would be interested in sponsoring a child for these camps, or like to learn a little more about this please feel free to get in touch with me on either, principal@hanmersprings.school.nz or 0274326496. Best wishes from Hanmer Springs School.

MOUNTAIN BIKE WASH DOWN AND REPAIR STATION

Hanmer Springs MTB Club now have a wash-down and repair station for mountain bikers at the old DOC centre on Jollies Pass Rd. (The hub and car park for walking and biking trails). Thanks to our volunteers from the committee and members many of whom have donated time and materials towards this project.

We would also like to specifically thank John Dawber and Annie Truman from the Hanmer Springs Foursquare supermarket. They are a proud contributor to the Foodstuffs Community Trust and endorsed our application for funding from The Trust for the repair station which is the most significant cost and integral part of the project.

If you enjoy riding our trails and would like to support the local mountain bike club, visit our web site and become a member or make a donation.

Community Board UPDATE

At the 25th May meeting, the board:

- Heard from Council staff that DOC received some funding to repair and maintain the Tophouse road, and will do so in June. The board subsequently discussed the state of the bridges along that road and were advised by HDC staff that the plan is to install a new deck on the bridge immediately after the turn-off to St James Conservation Area and that staff would follow up potential maintenance of the other two bridges with DOC. This road is an important conduit up into the high country- an integral part of the lifestyle of many locals, and a drawcard for many visitors- therefore being important to our local economy.
- Received the Halls Advisory Group charter. The board endorsed the Advisory Group's charter and asked Council staff for a full update on proposed fees and charges for hiring of the halls. This group is formed of Memorial Hall, sports field and pavillion users, and will advise the Community Board of any issues relating to those community assets.
- Discussed various options that have been presented for a possible disc golf course in the village, and decided to send three options out for community consultation. In line with the policy of Hurunui Tourism, the Board is supportive of and actively seeking a diversity of activities & events for locals and visitors alike, especially activities which are low cost or free for the family demographic to which Hanmer has always been a reliable destination.

- Received information on a proposed linking of Hanmer Springs' iconic walk tracks (Conical Hill, Majuba, Woodland, Dog Stream) through signage and way-finding. The board endorsed the idea and suggested it needed to be discussed with the Track Network Group. The Track Network Group which represents bikers, walkers and horse riders- funded by the Council but also created by many hours of voluntary effort over the past ten years, is not only an important pillar in the foundation of Hanmer's visitor activity portfolio- but essential to the enjoyment and well-being of the many locals who use it regularly.
- A new and up-graded toilet facility is being built at Brooke Dawson Reserve, funded by the Tourism infrastructure fund. Various sites on the reserve were considered. This reserve, having vehicle access, shade, a natural watercourse running through and on the edge of the Forest is an ideal family picnic area.

Something Old Something New

Beef Tataki

This simple dish is the perfect introduction to authentic Japanese cooking. Beef tataki or "bashed beef" is thin, carpaccio-style - but it doesn't need any brutal treatment. Thin slices of meltingly tender rare beef are served at room temperature and highlighted by a savoury soy-based sauce with a few sharp condiments. Match the dish with steamed rice, a few vegetables and a bowl of miso soup.

Ingredients

- 2 tbsp soy sauce (check gluten-free if required)
- 2 tbsp sake* (or substitute 1 tbsp vodka mixed with 1 tbsp water)
- 1 tbsp mirin* (or substitute 1/2 tsp sugar)
- 500g beef eye fillet
- salt and pepper, to season
- 2 tsp vegetable oil
- 1 tsp finely chopped chives, to serve
- 1/2 tsp finely grated ginger, to serve
- 1/2 tsp finely grated garlic, to serve

*sake and mirin are Japanese rice wines for cooking, available from Asian grocers and some supermarkets

Method

1. Heat your oven to 200C. To make the tataki sauce, mix together the soy sauce, sake and mirin.
2. Trim the beef of any sinew and visible fat and season well with salt and pepper. Heat an ovenproof frypan over high heat and fry the beef in the vegetable oil on all sides until well browned. Add the tataki sauce and roll the beef through it to coat it.
3. Place the whole pan in the oven and cook for five minutes. Roll the beef through the sauce again, then remove to a tray and pour over any sauce remaining in the pan. Cover with cling film and refrigerate for at least 45 minutes.
4. Roll the beef through the sauce again, then slice it very thinly (just a few millimetres) and arrange on a plate. Drizzle over the remaining sauce and serve with small piles of the chopped chives and the grated ginger and garlic.

Classic Beef Bourguignon

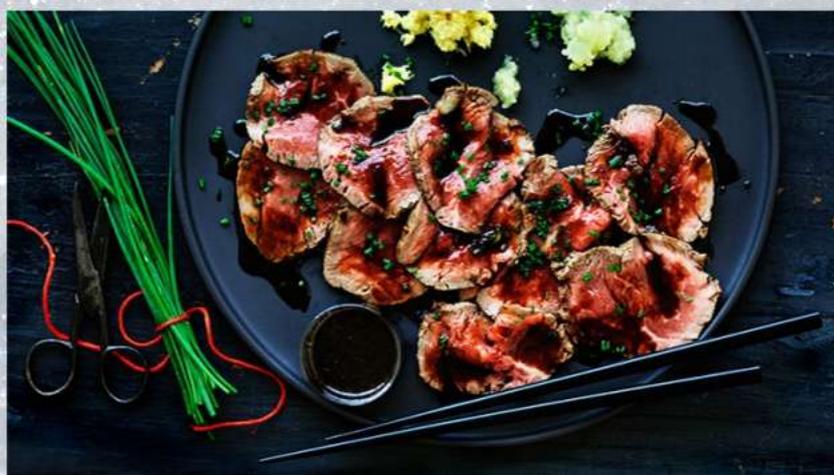

Beef bourguignon is the most classic of all the red wine braised meat dishes and is simply delicious. Thyme, bay leaf and parsley tied together make a "bouquet garni" for this recipe, but it's easier to tie the herbs up in muslin so you don't lose any into the stew. Don't be tempted to leave the flour out, as it thickens the sauce and makes it silky. I would serve this with buttery mash, boiled greens with burnt butter and slivered almonds, and, of course, a glass of wine.

Ingredients

- 1.4kg beef chuck, cut into 2cm dice
- 1 large brown onion, peeled and finely chopped
- 2 carrots, peeled and finely chopped
- 2 garlic cloves
- 1 bottle of good, rich red wine
- 180g lean salt pork, diced (you can use bacon)
- 50g (1/3 cup) plain flour
- 450g small button mushrooms, stems trimmed
- Bouquet garni
 - 3 parsley sprigs
 - 2 thyme sprigs
 - 1 bay leaf

Method

1. To make the bouquet garni, tie the ingredients together with kitchen string, or wrap in muslin.
2. Place the beef, onion, carrot, garlic and the bouquet garni into a large bowl. Pour in the wine and a pinch of salt and mix all the ingredients together. Place in an airtight container and marinate in the fridge for 24 hours.
3. Remove the beef from the marinade, reserving the marinade, and dry meat well with a paper towel.
4. Place a heavy-based saucepan with a tight-fitting lid over medium to high heat. When hot, add the salt pork or bacon and fry until crisp, about 6 minutes.
5. Season beef with salt, add to the pan and brown on all sides, about 7 to 8 minutes. Sprinkle in the flour, and cook, stirring constantly, for 3 minutes.
6. Add reserved marinade and 500ml (2 cups) water and bring to the boil over high heat. Reduce heat to a gentle simmer, place the lid on and cook until tender, about 3 hours. At the 2 1/2-hour stage, add mushrooms and cook for the final 30 minutes until tender.
7. To serve, remove bouquet garni and spoon the braise into 4 bowls. Give a good grind of pepper and serve

'Footrot Flats – The Musical'

It is 20 years since we performed this iconic New Zealand play.

Level 2 means we can hold auditions. Now is your chance to get involved!!

We need dogs, sheep, pigs, and the occasional human.

The plan is Sunday 7th June, 7pm at Hanmer Hall, but as we are not sure of the restrictions that will still be in place, if you are keen to take part, please email Grum (the director) grumgoesglobal@gmail.com or message him on Facebook and he will get back to you with details of the audition process.

How to Display Your PDF Pinkie in Magazine Format

If you are a digital subscriber to the Pinkie (that is, if you get via email) and would like to read it like a magazine here's what to do after opening the pdf.

On a Mac You will be viewing it in Preview. Go to View then from the drop down menu choose Two Pages.

Take the cursor to the edge of the window and when the two arrows show, drag it out and you are able to view the Pinkie in facing pages as you would the print version.

If you are viewing it on an Adobe PDF Reader (if you don't have it, it's free to download). Take the following path View then Page View then click on both Two Page View and Show Cover in Two Pages View then do the trick of pulling the window out and voila, you can read it in Magazine format. It is also easier to scroll. Hope that helps as several people have asked, so we have repeated it herewith. None of the above works if you are viewing on line You just hit View and bring it to the size you want with the Zoom feature.

ACCOUNT OF A VISIT TO THE HANMER PLAINS AND HOT SPRINGS DURING MAY 1889

Marion Bridge, (born 1856) was the wife of Charles Hastings Bridge (later Sir) a Government surveyor and town planner who was based in Christchurch. Mrs Bridge left a vivid hand-written account of many of the journeys she made with her husband.

On the 30th April Hastings and I left Christchurch by the morning train for Culverden, en route for the hot springs. Mr H P Hill and Mr P Campbell both were of our party and remained with us about ten days. After lunch at the railway terminus we proceeded on our journey in Mr Derrett's new dray which he always drives himself, and which was put on for our special convenience.

The day was bleak - wind piercing - and we were rather overcrowded, so that we could not admire the scenery which requires sunshine to highlight itself — but which now looked rather gloomy and desolate.

We arrived at Jollies Pass Hotel a half past five, cold and weary and happy for the blazing logs in the open fireplaces and a substantial tea. Next morning began our course of bathes — and with great curiosity we drove down to the springs. These are eight or nine in number that is, there are so many separate pools enclosed in a reserve of some acres in extent. As you approach, the peculiar mineral gases assert their presence strongly and the steam is seen ascending from the pools. The grounds are nicely planted with valuable trees and shrubs but their growth is slow owing to the exposed situation and the cold, cutting wind that blows straight from the snow-clad hills.

There are two bath houses, one contains eight baths, the other four, each in separate rooms. The caretaker is a delicate looking man. He keeps well out of sight and the assistant, a ruddy, robust young fellow comes forward to keep up the credit of the place, as certainly his chief looks like a warning instead of an encouragement.

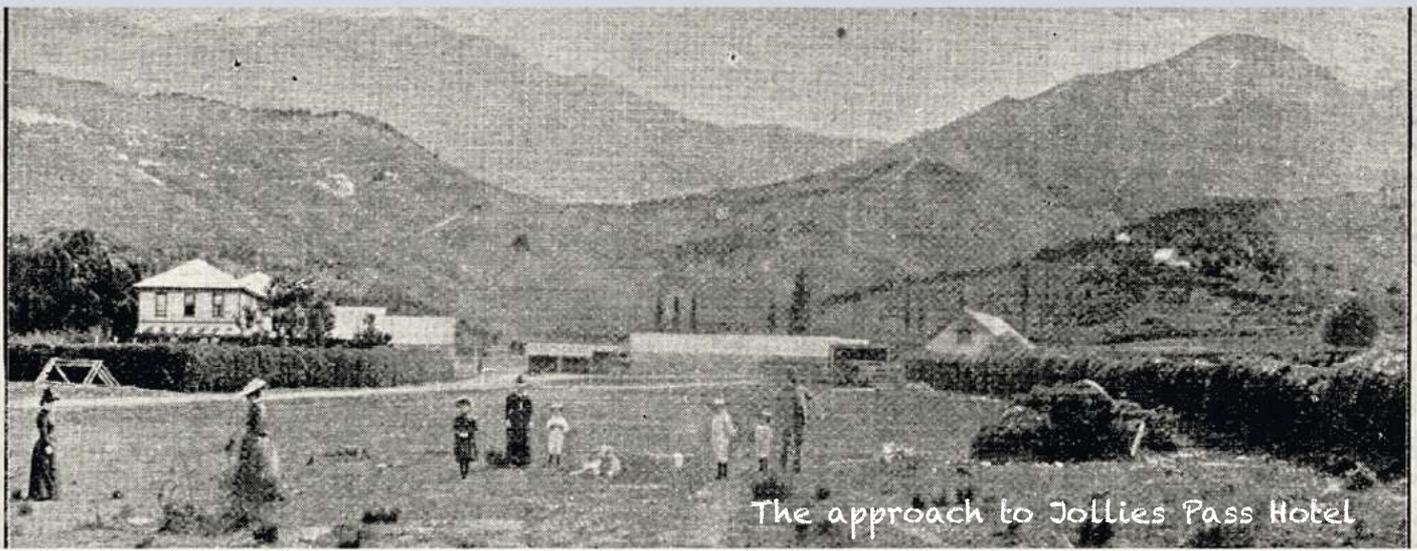

In answer to searching enquiries, we elicited that they seldom use the baths themselves after the well known precedent. The assistant told us that once in two months he took one and he always felt very weak after it.

There is a splendid swimming bath in the grounds, warm water and plenty of it. It is fenced around with high galvanised iron.

The use of this bath costs 6d. - the others costs one shilling each or six for four shillings. Hastings takes one bath daily and enjoys it, he eats well and is in excellent spirits. Mr Hill had begun to get over his rheumatism before coming here, but does not sleep so well. He takes one bath daily. Mr Campbell is in perfect health and refuses to endanger it by trying the treatment.

Phot

The approach to Jollies Pass Hotel

I had been so unwell before that, I could not judge of the results of the baths, until toward the end of the month's stay when I certainly improved and both ate and slept better. The foot was in a sore, swollen state after wearing a stiff bandage so long. I used to hold it under the taps while the bath was filling.

It is a delightfully new sensation to have absolutely as much water as you want — of a pleasant heat which can be maintained steadily. The temperature of the two pools which are connected with the bath house is respectively 119°F and 109°F. This water is mixed in the pipes so the heat in the baths is about 115°F. There is a cold water tap as well so you can have any lower temperature you want. There is also a shower apparatus attached to every bathroom and it is also considered advisable to end the daily bath with that. It is said the hot water never gives a cold, no matter what the outside air is like and we certainly proved the truth of that fact ourselves as we constantly drove back and forwards in bitterly cold, strong winds without suffering in any way.

I took the baths daily and always felt very faint and exhausted while in the water and for some time after but in the end derived great advantage. An aid to such a desirable end must certainly be the bracing air, higher elevation, freedom from outside worries of any sort and the regular drives in the open air to and fro the baths.

There is only a mail twice a week and no telegraph station within 25 miles, a paradise for tired out business people. I could not ascertain the exact elevation of Jollies Pass Hotel. But it is several hundred feet above Christchurch and sea level. Without being pretty, the scenery is interesting — a wide plain though which the Hanmer River runs and in which Mr Low's station St Helens, the hotel and baths are situated in hills encircling the basin, and a road over Jollies Pass, once a main road, leads to several back country station and into the interior of the Nelson province. This district derived the additional interest from the severe earthquake shocks of last year (1888), the basin being apparently a centre of energy. St Helens Station suffered severely and heavy chimneys were thrown down. Woodbank Station in close vicinity was wrecked as were Glen Wye, further up the Waiiau Gorge - and many other homesteads.

We were sufficiently comfortable at the hotel, paid six shillings a day each. The springs are two and three quarter miles away and a trap and horse are provided by the hotel people to convey you backwards and forwards free of charge. This is also done at the boarding house at Jack's Pass which is a mile and a half on the other side of the baths. The charge there is five shillings a day and I believe it is equally comfortable.

Many people derive a great benefit from a visit to the springs, chiefly those suffering from rheumatism, gout, kidney and skin diseases, sleeplessness, neuralgia etc etc while for those who simply require rest and change with perfect quiet, it is very desirable. Return tickets per rail and coach, available for one month are issued weekly for thirty shillings.

THE HANMER SPRINGS FOOD BANK

Update – 20th May 2020

We know that these are challenging times for us all, but for some the financial impact is immediate and particularly stressful. The Hanmer Springs Food Bank aims to provide practical support to people in need because of the impacts of COVID-19. Anyone facing difficult times is welcome to apply. This includes employees, business owners, individuals and families.

Applications are welcomed from any members of our Hanmer Springs community who are facing any significant financial hardship, or high degrees of anxiety and concern, arising from this COVID-19 event.

All we require is for you, in confidence, to complete the simplified application form providing your name and contact information.

Voucher values are issued as follows:

Individual... $70
Couple..... $100
Family..... $130

As the COVID-19 event continues to be an evolving challenge, the HSBA Food Bank needs to remain flexible in how it can best respond in serving the members of our community. The voucher rates and application process will continue to be reviewed and any changes deemed necessary will be made.

Keeping warm an issue?

There is now opportunity for HSBA Food Bank Applicants to indicate on the application form if they would like to be contacted about the possibility of them being able to receive a heating grant to assist them keeping warm over the winter months.

Donations Welcomed

Any donations are continuing to be gratefully received. We are amazed at the on-going support and generosity the initiative is receiving from our community members and groups.

As a reminder donations can be made into account number 03 1582 0094442 000. Please reference 560558 and include your Surname.

On behalf of us all ... thank you.

Finally, if you need some other form of support and aren't sure where to turn, please feel that you can still get in touch with Dave or Lynda. They are regularly in touch with other support providers in the region, and will do what they can to point you in the right direction. Their email address again are hsbatreasurer01@gmail.com or lyn-damarnie@yahoo.co.nz

The forms for the Food Bank can be obtained as an addendum to the pdf edition, from either of the above emails or you can email The Pinkie and we will forward them to you.

Interim ADVERTISING SCHEDULE FOR PINKIE

With the return to the printed Pinkie we are moving to interim advertising rates, with some downward tweaks. The amount of advertising we carry is down by about 70% so the amount we can generate over the next two months will indicate whether or not the Pinkie will survive

	Special Rate
Business Card (colour or b/w) (previously colour was billed at $35)	$20
1/6 page. b/w or colour	$40
1/4 page. b/w	$44
colour	$75
½ page b/w	$80
colour	$130
(was $88 & $150)
Full Page b/w	$125
colour	$200
(was $155 & $225)

With the printed edition it costs us considerably more to print ads in colour but with the digital version there is no additional cost so we are offering the one rate for colour or b/w on business cards and 1/6 page. Your advertisement will be in both the print and email editions

Important notices to do with Covid and Covid recovery strategies we will continue to publish free of charge. These will be published as an addendum to the pdf version which is emailed.

Classified adverts and public notices will also be at no cost.

If there is any way we can help please call
