AMURI A & P FINAL 2020 SHOW MEETING
7.30pm Wednesday 29th July
Rotherham Hotel Meeting Room

Due to the delays of Covid-19, we will finally be holding the final round up meeting as above.

All welcome

Apologies to Kim amuriap@yahoo.com or Rob McIntosh 027 589 8104

Last week government reaffirmed its confidence in Hanmer Springs as a major tourism visitor destination by announcing funding for three projects which totals $3.2 million.

This is a massive boost to Hanmer Springs and will add to the range of tourism products and attractions available, as the Village moves forward from Covid-19.

$2 million for a Fly Line – a gentle, eco-friendly, downhill ride through Conical Hill Forest, on a suspended seat.

$700,000 for further investigations into re-purposing the Chisholm Block at the Queen Mary into a European-style day spa. Concept designs were first discussed around 2015. No doubt ideas will have changed since then.

Approximately $500,000 to pay off the balance of the cost of the new Cascade Pool and Conical Hill slide, where numbers have already exceeded expectations since it opened last November.

REMEMBER TO VOTE
IN THE WEST WARD BY-ELECTION

We live in a democratic country - so many in the world do not share this privilege.

Democracy starts with you and with me. Local Body elections count. Your local representatives not only keep a watchful eye over the nuts and bolts of the village, they reflect your wishes in decisions regarding the ongoing development of Hanmer Springs as a great place to visit, balancing that with what is required to keep Hanmer Springs a great place to live.

Hanmer Springs needs to have a seat around the table in Amberley. It is an important economic Powerhouse for the Hurunui District.

Your Postal vote forms should be with you this week if you haven't received them already.

Mary Holloway for the West Ward.

Fly Line
the next “must-do”
attraction for Hanmer Springs

Thanks to a $2 million grant from the Government’s Provincial Growth Fund and Infrastructure Fund, announced by Regional Economic Development Parliamentary Under-Secretary, Fletcher Tabuteau at a small function in Hanmer last Friday, the dream of this new family-friendly attraction is likely to become a reality sometime soon. We are excited !

Graham Abbot, the General Manager of the Pools told us “This has been a dream of ours for some time and it’s great the government has decided it is a project worthy of their backing. I’m looking forward to talking to our community to get their ideas and help to shape the final location and design”.

Domestic tourism is Hanmer Springs' focus and it has been awhile since there has been such an exciting new attraction (outside of the Pools), to add to the variety of experiences offered to visitors.

While the next step is to talk to the community, which will happen soon, and would have happened sooner, but was delayed because of Covid-19, it is proposed the Fly Line will be operational by the end of 2021.

The ride itself is a similar concept to a flying-fox. The ride will take people on an 850 metre-long gentle and quiet downhill ride through Conical Hill Forest. Users will be strapped onto a suspended seat that peacefully glides down a stainless-steel track.

The ride takes nine minutes and is designed for children and anyone wanting to take in the sights. Its top speed is the same as a fast walking pace, but being 3-5 metres above the ground, the views are spectacular.

Graeme Abbot says the entire experience has been designed to have minimal impact on the natural environment. "Being a gravity-powered experience and having no need for powered transport to the top of the ride, Fly-Line is near silent and the carbon footprint of the operation will be near zero, which aligns with our role as a kaitiaki of Hanmer Springs".

Graeme commented further "This will be a great asset for the Hanmer Springs Village and help attract visitors to the entire Hurunui region. We've seen how this operation has been received overseas and I am really looking forward to seeing how our community make it their own, in terms of the design and use".

According to Graeme this new attraction will create 25 new jobs, will be a great boost for the community, with a projected $4 million influx over the first five years of operation.

The Music and Arts Trust is having its AGM in August but they need more members. It is not an arduous job, only 4 meetings a year. The Trust was formed in July 2017 and was formed to promote the arts and music in Hanmer Springs.

Grum (Graham Frith) is the co-ordinator of the Trust and he comes up with the ideas and organises them.

Over the past 3 years we have hosted many musicians in private homes and churches. Grum has organised Summer, Spring and Autumn schools with a range of classes from French polishing to soap making, singing tuition to saxophone lessons. This October a big jazz festival is planned which sounds loads of fun.

If you think you would be interested in this committee contact Grum for more information.

Who needs to talk when you can Tiktok?

According to social media statistics, 3.5 million Kiwis are active social media users. They spend an average of 1 hour and 53 minutes on social media networks each day. Facebook apparently is still the most popular by a country mile, but Instagram we are told, wins the hearts and minds of our youth. Not according to my two teenage granddaughters – "Gran, that's old stuff, we use Snapchat". "What's that*?".* "It's free. We can text and send pictures and they disappear after a few seconds, so it's safer".

Facebook, Instagram, Tweeting, Blogging and LinkedIn I know, but I haven't a clue what the difference is between Tumblr, Tiktok, Instagram or Snapchat.

We have had our grandchildren staying with us recently and I have been observing them. Apart from the fact they don't emerge from their bedrooms until mid-day, online these days is their real world. Kids seem to be born with a phone in their hands and they feel naked without it. If they lose or misplace it, it is a major drama believe me. Their device becomes an extension of their personality and they simply can't imagine life without it. They make their social arrangements there, have meaningful and meaningless conversations with their friends there. It may also expose them to undesirable connections and cyber-bullying.

The teenagers I know, admittedly that's just a few, are masters at keeping themselves occupied in the hours after school, during school if they are not caught, in fact anywhere or any time of the day or night. If I text my granddaughters, there is usually an instant response. When they are not doing their homework (and when they are), when they are on holiday, or anywhere, they are online – on their phones, texting, sharing, trolling or scrolling… you name it.

Before everyone had an Instagram or a Snapchat account, teenagers kept themselves busy too, but they were more likely to be actually talking on their phone, or in person when hanging out with their friends. It used to be called "talking to one". That's got to have some positives.

I don't want to open a debate on the pro's and cons of social networking, but it just seems to me that the constant use of devices and the dramatic decline in face-to-face communication reduces our youngster's ability to interact with others in real life.

They are not the only ones. How many times do you see adults sitting together in a café or restaurant – no-one is talking, everyone is looking at their device.

What is happening to us and what is happening to our children ?

Creative Genius Arts and Craft Co-op is delighted to be trading again after the lockdown

We are able to report great support from locals and the wider public as we are all encouraged to buy 'New Zealand Made'. With only 100% NZ made items sold in our shop, some of our artists and crafts people are struggling to meet demand as products go flying out the door. However, that also gives us a wonderful opportunity to get the creative juices flowing, and make new and interesting items. There's always something new to see, as well as old favourites, when you visit our shop at Boulder Point Shopping Precinct, next to Salt and Pepper Café.

Thanks and see you soon!
